

Vaba Lava startis sügisel 2014 uue teenuskontseptsiooniga üle ootuste hästi. Uut etenduskunstide keskust külastas esimese tegevushooaja (2015) jooksul 55 000 inimest. Väljundi leidis 212 etendust (eri üritusi kokku 314), mille taga oli 55 kodu- ja välismaist truppi. Need numbrid on tänini kasvutrendis.

English Summary:

Vaba Lava's goal was to build a center for performing arts enriched with new service design solutions that would offer private and project theatres stages, technologies and different supportive services like communication, marketing, PR etc.

A unique and contemporary curator program was created that is popular in the whole world: 244 applications were submitted to the 2015/2016 season's competition - 43 from Estonia and 201 from countries around the world.

Vaba Lava also offers educational programs both for professionals and the public. Vaba Lava started with better results than expected: 55 thousand people visited the new performing arts' center in the first season in 2015 Clients highly value the new service solution of offering an output to the public with a whole organizational arrangement at hand.

This is a significant civil initiative that has resulted in a new theatre house for Tallinn after more than 100 years, an attractive place to participate in and hold events.
